

lived at Tenth and Hull Streets, opposite the station house, the corporal in charge lined his men up and carried them into the station house. A large crowd of people followed and pushed themselves into the room. The prisoners and the men were well mixed, and when the other in charge of the station began to put the names on the book one of the men slipped away.

The charge preferred against them was that of disorderly conduct. Those who were placed in the room were George Craig, Emmett Andrews, Floyd Bass and Horace Clements. Each of them secured bail and were released later for a hearing to-morrow morning.

The arrest caused a lot of excitement, and when the news of the shooting of Taylor was heard, indignation was expressed, although none of the details were known at the time.

One wound was received by Taylor in the lower part of the body. It entered from the rear. The long bullet, driven by a heavy charge of powder, tore its way through his body, inflicting a necessarily fatal wound. He was given every medical attention but it was found impossible to save his life.

D. L. Toney Arrested.

Mr. D. L. Toney, member of the Legislature from Manchester, was arrested last night, by order of Captain Craig, of Company E, of the Seventeenth regiment. The charge preferred against him was that of disorderly conduct.

The facts, so far as could be learned, were that Mr. Toney was standing in front of his store on Hull Street, when he was ordered by a sentry to move. Captain Craig was near at the time, and joined the sentry in his order to Mr. Toney to move.

The latter declined to do so, and a crowd collected during the short colloquy that followed. Captain Craig then stated that Mr. Toney used abusive language to him, and that then he was arrested. He was held for a few minutes and returned to his store.

A short while afterward Major Smith passed by the store, and says he saw Mr. Toney on the sidewalk, and that he was arrested. He was held for a few minutes and returned to his store.

Mr. Toney then invited all those who were on the sidewalk to come into his store, which they did, and the incident closed.

A Times-Dispatch man tried to see Mr. Toney shortly afterward, but he could not be found. His friends, however, and unaided, for he was simply standing in front of his own store and the crowd outside was no more than the usual crowd of friends who congregate there on any Saturday.

The general sentiment concerning the arrest was divided. Many thought the soldiers had taken too much upon themselves in arresting a prominent citizen, while others thought the soldiers did right in arresting any one, especially a man of prominence, who should know that the laws must be upheld and that crowds under present conditions could not congregate on the streets.

A Suit Threatened.

Mr. Toney threatens to enter suit against the State, and his case will be heard to-morrow.

Mr. Toney has been a member of the Legislature for several terms. Recently he has stated that he would not be a candidate for re-election, as he had had enough of public life. He was the losing candidate in a recent mass meeting, at which a resolution was adopted asking the Passenger and Power Company not to run cars in Manchester until the strike was over and the old men were taken back. It is generally understood that he is a candidate for the position of Mayor, incumbent, Mayor Maurice, at the election next year.

MOTORMAN ARRESTED

Frank Ott Charged With Drunkenness. Complaints Made.

Cars on the Seventeenth-Street line were used for some time last night owing to the arrest of the motorman by the soldiers on duty there. This motorman, whose name was given at the First Police Station as Frank Ott, was taken to the station with a charge of drunkenness against him, but was subsequently bailed for his appearance. According to the statement of the officer, the motorman was drinking and ran his car off the track. He was placed under arrest, and the car was taken to the station. Several complaints have been heard of improper conduct on the part of soldiers in various parts of the city. These complaints, so far as could be ascertained, are of a minor nature, and no soldiers on duty, though one case is reported elsewhere of a soldier on duty who was arrested for drinking and driving past the barracks. The officer in charge of the car was not known his name or company. The occurrence was on Twenty-ninth Street, where the car was taken to the station at headquarters of the officer, or the man would have been severely punished.

STRIKE NOT SETTLED

Street-Car Union Officially Denies a Rumor Current Yesterday.

The striking street railway men's organization held an open meeting last night at Sanger Hall. It was attended by a large number of the strikers of the division, and by many of affiliated organizations and citizens.

Brief speeches by a number of representatives of other organized labor bodies were made, all the speakers pledging their sympathy and support to the strikers. Some of them getting salaries or wages amounting to sixty or seventy-five dollars a month offered to donate half the amount of contributions from individuals and organizations were reported, the aggregate being about $225. Assurance were given that more would be paid in hereafter.

President W. J. Griggs, of the division, stated that not a single desertion had been reported yet, except that mentioned in yesterday's Times-Dispatch, a man on the Richmond-Petersburg interurban line.

HE APPEARS WELL.

Every man that we fit out makes a favorable impression—as far as clothing he can pass muster anywhere. We've just made an unusual purchase for this season of the year—July—but the patterns were so original, we ordered a few as a flyer.

Come in and let us know if these suits are going to fly or flounder.

QUIET NOW RETURNING

The Situation, as Far as Richmond is Concerned, is Satisfactory—Rumor of Strike Settlement is Denied.

The situation in the street railway strike yesterday, so far as Richmond was concerned, was highly satisfactory, and was devoid of anything that indicated any further developments. While several minor incidents were reported, yet, considering the fact that this was a holiday and a Saturday and that the saloons were all open as usual, the day was a very gratifying one from the standpoint of the strike.

The arrest of a member of Company B, Seventeenth regiment, of Norfolk, on a charge of terrorizing a car and defying an officer in Fulton, was the most noteworthy incident on the north side of the city. The man was committed to the guard house, and will be tried by court-martial. The occurrence was on Denny Street, Fulton.

A Drunken Motorman.

Another case is reported of a drunken motorman who ran his car off the tracks on Seventeenth Street, and was arrested by a member of the Howitzers. He was taken to the First Police Station and later bailed.

Sergeant Sned, of Company M, Seventeenth regiment, of Norfolk, was slightly injured by being struck and knocked down by a car. He was taken to the Virginia Hospital, and is doing nicely. No bones were broken.

There were run all day on the various lines in this city without interruption and without incident other than those noted. The guard of soldiers on most of the cars has been reduced to one to a car on nearly all the lines, and the presence of this one was hardly necessary, so that any tendency to attack the cars was concerned.

No Strike Settlement.

Persistent rumors are in circulation that the strike was settled, or that it would be settled, to-morrow or Tuesday, and frequent requests for information as to the accuracy of these reports were received. To all of these the same answer has to be given: There is absolutely no foundation for the reports so far as could be ascertained. Neither side in the strike knows anything of the story. The company is unalterable in its original position that they have nothing to settle, and that they have nothing to give.

THE STRIKE CASES

All of Them Will Be Up for Trial in Henrico To-Morrow.

Some eight or ten cases, all growing out of the present street-car troubles, will be called for trial to-morrow morning before Squire James T. Lewis, of Henrico county. The greatest interest is felt in them and a big crowd is expected to be on hand.

The cases are those of Constable Myer Angle, charged with assaulting Captain Alex. B. Guign; James Farley, chief of strike-breakers, charged with carrying concealed weapons; Captain Alex. B. Guign, charged with using abusive language and attempting to intimidate a county officer, and a young man named Abbott, charged with yelling "Hang him" when Farley was arrested. Besides these three guards, charged with assaulting the crowd on Main and Vine Streets, will also be given a preliminary hearing. Evans and Winn, charged with interfering with a motorman, and the latter charged also with feloniously shooting Sergeant Easley, will also be tried.

There is some question of jurisdiction in the cases of the guards. Many believe that they belong after all to the city authorities. Mr. Sands, the Commonwealth's attorney, said last night that he would go thoroughly into this matter at the very outset.

SHOT AT MOTORMAN

The Missile Struck the Signal Bell Just Above His Head.

Simultaneously with the sharp crack of a firearm from an alley between Adams and Jefferson Streets yesterday afternoon was the ringing of the signal bell on one of the Main Street cars, as a leader suddenly fastened himself against the front end of the car. The car was moving slowly, and the man was not hurt. The car was stopped, and the man was taken to the station.

HE HAD STRENGTH.

But Lack of Mental Power.

Food may make a body strong and stout and yet not strengthen the brain unless the food be rich in albumen and phosphate of potash, on which the delicate cells of the brain and nerves must be rebuilt.

Grape-Nuts is rich in these elements and repairs this wasted tissue as trial.

The fall of 1891 I entered the Indiana Dental College at Indianapolis after a summer of hard work, during which time I consumed as much bread, meat, potatoes, etc., as the average human being, and yet I was not strong.

"During that entire term Grape-Nuts was my principal diet and my general average of 98.1 firmly believe is due to Grape-Nuts. As a brain food Grape-Nuts is certainly a wonder." Name given by Pestum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.
